Outro:

What I've learned from all of this is that you shouldn't be my friend
There's nothing left in my heart and the love will end
I don't know where I will go, but I know that it'll be new
Had a dream there at the falls, but that certainty isn't true

I don't need your sympathy, I will survive the night
I am just an ordinary guy, we all have our battles to fight
The only thing that I don't know is that when I grow old
Without love, how can I keep my body from the cold

Lying in my bed alone, not living in my past
Love is dead
Love is dead at last
