

Intro:

Are you lost?
Are you lost in this world?
Are you lost in this world, we call love?
Do you know what's best for us, or are you trying to escape love? An illusion
But I feel like I can't be happy without you beside me
And I see you want to leave, please stay with me
I'm trying to survive without you
I'm trying to move on but I guess that's not meant to be

Verse 1:

Still don't understand why you left me alone
Your reasoning to me, I feel is unknown
I shouldn't say that everything I did was justified
But it doesn't seem right that you left me while I cried
I thought things were perfect, thought I'd marry you
And it seems like you liked me very much too
Where did I mess up? Where did things go wrong?
I never did beat you, or even talk to that blonde
I felt that everything was going okay
Then your personal problems got in the way
You thought that I still defined you by your past
But I'm still scared of our sex life broadcast
I needed you, you were my only crutch
Because I have this fear of never being touched
Being alone in this world won't make my fears subside
I'm a scared little boy who pushed his friends aside

Chorus:

You are my angel of light, why did you leave come night?
You are my angel of light, why aren't you here tonight?

Verse 2:

I still can't believe that you left me so soon
The emotional roller coaster hit me like a whole typhoon
And I'm just coming up gasping for air
When you start dating the guy that I told you to beware
I wish you given me like a warning sign
So that I could find a solution if I had some time
I'm an engineer, solving shit is what I do
But it seems like my love always splits into two
Maybe the problem wasn't ever on my side
Maybe she just wanted to be felt up on her inside

Maybe I should be just sitting here and feeling lucky
That I had a loving time without feeling slutty
No I'm not going to give up that fast yo
I can't let go of the only person that I know
I still love you, I hope you'll come around and see
That I'll still be the best person for your fantasy

Chorus:

You are my angel of light, why did you leave come night?
You are my angel of light, why aren't you here tonight?
You are my angel of light, why did you leave come night?
You are my angel of light, you were my angel!

No!
...please

Outro:

I'm trying to survive without you
I'm trying to move on but I guess
I really wish, yes
Our love is just not meant to be
